Aim: How do we describe the characteristics of the Ogoni mask?

Procedure:

- Define and discuss critical analysis.
- Introduce/review and discuss the vocabulary.
- Point out that the artist is unknown.
- Elicit information about Nigeria, Africa (location, language, capital city).
- Explain and discuss the concepts of realistic art and abstract art.
- Discuss whether or not the mask is more realistic or more abstract.
- Have the class describe the facial features and the head (expression, hairstyle and jaw).
- Do you suppose the facial features have any significance?
- Review texture and ask the class to give a description (smooth, rough or soft).
- Elicit the moods evoked by the mask (happy, sad, serious, angry or calm).
- Ask the group to describe the shapes (semi-circles, rectangles, squares).
- Ask for a description of the lines they observe (straight, curvy, wavy).
- Is the mask symmetrical?
- Describe the materials used to construct the mask. Discuss why these materials were used.

Summary: Elicit critiques (I liked or disliked the mask because ...) and record the responses.

Follow Up: List reasons why people wear masks.

Aim: How do we use adjectives to describe the characteristics of the Ogoni Wood Face Mask?

I Can Statement: I can use adjectives to describe the Ogoni Wood Face Mask.

Procedure:

- Define adjectives: an adjective is a word that describes a noun.
- Review nouns: nouns are people, places or things.
- Give a few examples of adjectives and elicit a few more from the class.
- Introduce/review and discuss the vocabulary.
- Record the elicited adjectives on index cards for the following categories:
 - a) texture (smooth, rough, thick, soft or hard).
 - b) facial features (expression, details, jaw).
 - c) moods evoked by the mask (happy, sad, serious, angry, calm or none at all.).
 - d) shapes (circles, ovals, squares, organic, geometric)
 - e) lines they observe (straight, curvy or diagonal)
 - f) symmetry of the mask
 - g) setting (location, time frame, event).
 - h) energy or motion (intensity and direction).
- Have the group classify the adjectives on the index cards into categories.

Summary: Have the students write a brief description of the mask using the elicited adjectives.

Follow Up: List ten adjectives describing a family member, a friend or a pet.
